New Book Educates Baby Boomers on Investing and Warns of Imminent Disaster

Baby Boomer Investing in the Perilous Decade of the 2020s

Includes Educational Videos

San Clemente, CA Author Ronald Surz announces the publication of his new book that helps 78 million baby boomers protect their $60 trillion in lifetime savings. Baby boomer investors are in serious financial danger in this decade. The book is a compilation of Baby Boomer Investing Shows financial education videos produced over the past two years and is available on Amazon <Here>. An introduction is available <Here>

“Most baby boomers will spend much of this decade in the “Risk Zone” transitioning from working life to retirement. The Risk Zone is the time when the primary investment objective should be to protect lifetime savings” Ronald Surz, author.

Benefits include:

- The Kindle version links the reader to entertaining and informative videos from the Baby Boomer Investing Show
- Readers are educated on investment risk and advised on what is appropriate at this time in their lives
- Action steps are clearly described and easy to implement.
